

A. Zell Williams

Alumni Playwright

July, 2014 -- June, 2021

A. Zell Williams writes compelling stories about race, class, violence, crime, and politics that blur the line between comedy and drama. For more than 15 years, he has written award-winning stage plays for theaters such as the Public, InterAct Theatre in Philadelphia, and developed works internationally with the Royal Court in London. Based in Los Angeles, Zell now works in television writing for established series and developing original pilots.
